

River City Rhythms: GOSPEL CONCERT Showcase (Free)

Featuring

AKOMA & Friends (Immaculate Conception Dancers & Nat Turner Drum Circle)

Corn Hill Landing & Exchange Blvd @ Plymouth Avenue

FRIDAY, July 31, 2009

6:00-8:00pm

BYLCB (Bring Your Lawn Chair/ Blanket)

AKOMA (www.akoma.org): Rochester's powerful and uplifting African American Women's Gospel Choir along with her friends the:

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION LITURGICAL DANCERS & NAT TURNER DRUM CIRCLE (West African Rhythms)

Hear & participate in the lifting of voices, the moving of feet, the clapping of hands, the beating of drums...

River City Rhythm: a series of FREE outdoor concerts on the Genesee Riverwalk at Corn Hill Landing that showcases Rochester musicians in July and early August. Features vocal and instrumental music performed by some of Rochester's talented area musicians whose styles range from Dixieland, Jazz, and bluegrass to Gospel, traditional Irish and American folk music. The series began in 2007 as a public-private partnership between the Corn Hill Neighbors Association, Corn Hill Navigation, Danforth Development, Mark IV Enterprises, and the City of Rochester. Sponsoring the 2009 season are the City of Rochester, City Newspaper, Corn Hill Navigation, First Niagara (Rochester 175th Anniversary sponsor), the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) and Rochester Chevy Dealers (Rochester 175th Anniversary sponsor).