

One of AKOMA's Own to be honored as a Woman of Excellence

The Rochester Business Journal recently named its 2019 Women of Excellence and Circle of Excellence awards recipients. AKOMA is pleased and proud to congratulate Sister Carmen Allen who was selected to the 2019 class. Sister Allen is one of 40 women from a variety of industries receiving a Women of Excellence award. This is a well-deserved honor for this woman of God who demonstrates civic engagement on various levels and works diligently serving in AKOMA, her church and the Rochester community. Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, publisher of the Rochester Business Journal had this to say about the 2019 honorees: “The 2019 Women of Excellence honorees demonstrate hard work, professional success, leadership and a relentless commitment to making the Rochester community the best place to live and work.” This description certainly fits Sister Allen. The Women of Excellence awards will be presented Thursday, May 9th at the Joseph A. Floreano Rochester Riverside Convention Center.
